The Usilton Family of Kent County, Maryland

The name of Usilton appears continuously for more than two hundred years in Kent County, Maryland records. This family has taken an active part in all civic affairs in the county, many of them holding offices of trust, and many of them have held large and valuable tracts of land.

It would be hard to find a name that is spelled more ways, when the facts recorded show that it is always the same family, but in any case in genealogical research, due consideration must be given to the vagaries of Colonial spelling. The following will show the various ways of spelling used in the old records:

"Ureslinton, Uselton, Ufselton, Usilton, Usleton, Uslington, Usselton, Ussilton, Ustleton, Uysleton, and Husselton."

WILLIAM USILTON, I.

No record available will show when the first William Usilton came to the Colony. His name appears first in the Orphans' Court records. He died intestate some time in 1729. There is no record to show that he held any land here, but the amount of his personal estate was considerable for that time.

The Administration Bond for the personal estate was given by "Margtt Ufsilton widow Administratrix Ebenezr Perkins Francis Bellows all of Kent County in the province of Maryland" for "Five Hundred pounds sterling money" "dated this Sixteenth day of May Annoq domini 1729"

(Bonds No. 2.,345,346).

This is followed by a list comprising wearing apparel, household furniture, stock, grain, farming implements, "2 old Books @ 1s," amounting in the whole to £106..0..3.

WILLIAM USILTON, II.

The names of the "very young" children of William Usilton are not recorded,—they may not have survived.—but "Margaret" appears next in a land record, (No. 12., 48), with a "son William Ureslinton", and at that time she is recorded as Margaret Childs of Cecil County. October 20, 1737, she bought of Gideon Pearce and wife Ann, Lot No. 134, at George Town, it "being part of a tract called Tolchester on Sassafrass River," for which she paid six pounds. The lot was to be her property her lifetime, then to her son, William Ureslinton.

Again Margaret and William appear together, but by this time Margaret had married again, and she is called "Margaret, wife of Matthew Dadman." April 3, 1739, Gideon Pearce and wife Ann sold to Margaret Dadman, for five pounds, one acre of land, "being part of a tract called Tolchester, upper end of George Town," said lot to belong to Margaret Dadman her life time, and "after her decease to her son William Usilton." This seems to be another transaction involving Lot No. 134. (No. 12., 314)

Shrewsbury Parish records, a copy of which is in the Maryland Historical Society Library, shows on page 230, "Wm. Uselton son of Wm. Uselton By Margret his Wife Born Octr. the 3rd 1725."

William Usilton, the second, married "Mary", but the name of her family could not be found. The births of the children of William and Mary Usilton are recorded in Shrewsbury as follows:

James, son of William & Mary Uselton, born Dec. 6, 1746;
William, son of William & Mary, born Sept. 21, 1748;
John, son of William & Mary, born Oct. 28, 1750;
Francis, son of William & Mary, born Apr. 16, 1753. (Pages 284, 285)

William and Mary Usilton appear together in a land transfer, (No. 18., 31), June 19, 1754, where it is shown that "William Uselton, Taylor, and wife, Mary, sold to James Hunter, Merchant", for seven pounds, part of a tract of land called Tolchester, the said lot No. 134, at George Town, and one other parcel of land being part of Tolchester, containing one acre of land.

No other record of this William Usilton can be found before the records in the Orphans' Court.

He died intestate, some time early in the year 1775, as the Administration Bond was given "22 day of Feby 1775," for "five hundred Pounds ftarling money" by William Brisco, Adminr. & Joseph Greenwood of Kent County Farmers." (Bonds No. 1., 266)

"An Inventory of the Goods and Chattels of William Ufelton late of Kent County and province of Maryland Deceased appraised in Current money of the province by us the Subscribers being thereto Lawfully authorised and Sworn this 1th. day of March 1775

| Kindred | Creditors | Appraisers |
|---|---|---|
| Francs. his X mark ufelton | Benja. Brisco | Benja. Terry |

The first inventory shows the amount to be £6..0..11. (Invts. 7. 414). "Sperate debts due Wm. Ustleton" amounting to 25..15..1. (No. 8., 41), and on page 42 of same book, of 4..12..0. was added. Inventory returned January 20, 1776.

The "Account of William Brisco Admr. of William Usleton" shows an amount of £26..13..0., with a balance due the Estate of £9..3..8. Augt. 18th 1778. No distribution is recorded. (Accts. No. 6., 212)

It is very interesting to see that the four sons of William and Mary Usilton recorded in Shrewsbury Parish records, are all found in the Kent County, Maryland Militia List, Revolutionary War. Of the four, only Francis can be accounted for in records following. We shall consider his record later.

"The proceedings of the Convention of the Province of Maryland, session of December, 1774, shows the following authorization of the initial organization of militia in the Province:

"Resolved unanimously, That if the late acts of Parliament, relative to the Massachusetts Bay, shall be attempted to be carried into execution by force in that colony, or if the assumed power of Parliament to tax the Colonies shall be attempted to be carried into execution by force, in that or any other Colony, that, in such case, this Province will support such Colony to the utmost of their power.

"Resolved unanimously, That a well regulated militia, composed of the gentlemen, freeholders and other freemen, is the natural strength and only stable security of a free government, and that such militia will relieve our mother country from any expense in our protection and defense; will obviate the pretense of a necessity for taxing us on that account, and render it unnecessary to keep any standing army (ever dangerous to liberty) in this Province.

"And therefore it is recommended to such of the said inhabitants of this Province as are from sixteen to fifty years of age, to form themselves into Companies of sixty-eight men; to choose a captain, two lieutenants, an ensign, four sergeants, four corporals and one drummer for each company; and use their utmost endeavors to make themselves masters of the military exercise. That each man be provided with a good firelock and bayonet fixed thereon, half a pound of powder, two pounds of lead and a cartouch-box or powder horn, and a bag for ball, and be in readiness to act on any emergency." ## FRANCIS USILTON, III.

Kent County land records will show that Francis Usilton bought of George and Mary Hanson, twenty-five and one-eighth acres of land, part of a tract called "Worton Manor", dated April 9, 1793. (B. C. 3., 452)

January 28, 1796, he bought of Joshua Kennard of Queen Anne's County, executor of Nathaniel Kennard, one hundred acres of land called "Denby Resurveyed", for which he paid "three hundred and sixty pounds, twelve shillings, and eleven pence." (B. C. 4., 327)

May 25, 1813, he bought of Unit Angier, eight acres and twenty-four perches of land called "Redmore's Supply", for which he paid nine hundred dollars. (B. C. 7., 379)

January 12, 1819, he bought of James M. Anderson and William Harris, trustees under the will of Henry Kennard, one hundred and twenty-four acres, three roods, and fourteen perches, called "Wheel Wright Swamp", for which he paid nine hundred and ninety-three dollars. (W. S. 2., 391)

August 16, 1817, Francis Usilton sold to Samuel Reed, for one hundred and ninety-eight dollars and sixty cents, six acres of "Worton Manor". At the same time also came Catharine, the wife of Francis Usilton, and testified before the Justice of the Peace, that she signed the same deed of her own free will, and was not induced to do so through fear of her husband's displeasure. (W. S. 2., 9)

October 26, 1818, he sold to Macall Medford, for eight dollars, one-half an acre of "Redmore's Supply", and at the same time also came Catharine, wife of Francis Usilton.

October 26, 1818, he sold to John Usilton, for seven hundred dollars, eight acres of land, being part of a tract of land called "Redmore's Supply", "which Francis Usilton bought of Unit Angier". At the same time also came Catharine, the wife of Francis Usilton. (W. S. 2., 270)

The Administration Bond for the estate of Francis Usilton was given November 8, 1824, by Francis Uselton, John Uselton, and Joseph Uselton, for twenty thousand dollars, Francis Uselton, Executor. (Bonds No. 10., 461)

The Inventory was returned "13th day of December 1824 by Wm. Coburn Andrew Toulson", the amount being $1,300.26½.

Among the items listed are "Wearing apparel, 16 Oz of Silver, pine Cupboard & contents, 1 pine Cheste, Brafs Candlestick & Snuffers, Walnut Breakfast Table, High Post Bedstead, 6 Winsor Chairs, Walnut Desk, 1 Drefsing Glafs, Lot of old Books, 2 Dutch ovens, 4 slaves," together with many other things, too numerous to mention, any one of which the descendants with a love for antiques would be only too glad to possess. (Invts. No. 17., 396)

No account can be found, but several Vouchers are recorded as follows:

"Recd. this 9th day of June 1835 of Francis Usilton Exor: of Francis Usilton decd. the sum of one dollar in full of a legacy left me by the said Francis Usilton decd. pr. his Will dated Septr. 12th eighteen hundred and twenty four—witnefs my hand and Seal Iohn Usilton (Seal)"

William Howard"

"2 July 1825 Received of Francis Usilton executor of Francis Usilton Deceased the Sum of one Dollar it being the Legacy left me by my Father Hosanna Reed"
(Vouchers, page 279)

One must not think that a father was partial in making such a will, where one child seemed to receive more than another. It was often the case that a father would give a child, when of age, or in the case of a daughter, at the day of marriage, some kind of a settlement, and he would deduct that amount from such a child when making a will.

Catharine Usilton did not survive her husband a very long time. Her will will follow. No inventory or account is recorded.

JOHN USILTON, IV.

William, (1); William, (2); Francis, (3); John, (4).

He provided for his wife, Sarah, and children,—John N. Usilton, Executor, Elizabeth, wife of William Howard, Thomas E. Usilton, Avis Louisa Usilton, and Sarah Frances Usilton.

The will was witnessed by George Vickers, John N. Dodd, and Alexander Barrett.

---

JOHN N. USILTON, V.

William, (1); William, (2); Francis, (3); John, (4); John N. (5).

Kent County Marriage License Records will show that "John N. Usilton, 54, Widower, married Sarah M. Potter, 28, Teacher, January 17, 1871, at John Corey's, by Rev. J. B. Quigg.

John N. Usilton died some time in 1885. Bond for his personal estate was given June 23, 1885, by Sarah M. Usilton, John W. Corey, Albert L. Corey, James H. Baker, and I. Richard Leaverton, all of Kent County, for ten thousand dollars. (Bonds No. 15., 13.)

Administration Accounts T. R. S. 1., 142., March 6, 1888, shows the heirs to be Sarah M. Usilton, the widow, and John Gale Usilton, a son.

The administrators were John W. Corey and Sarah M. Usilton.

JOHN GALE USILTON, VI.

William, (1); William, (2); Francis, (3); John, (4); John N. (5); John Gale, (6).

VIIITH GENERATION

Eliane Usilton, John Gale Usilton, Layton Usilton, Patricia Usilton.

REBECCA (?) HOWARD, IV.

William, (1); William, (2); Francis, (3); Rebecca, (?) (4).

It is shown by the will of Francis Usilton that he had a daughter who married some one named Howard, as he mentioned his "two Grand Sons William and Risdon Howard".

There is no record available to show the exact identity of the daughter of Francis Usilton by her given name.

Luke Howard, Jr., left a will recorded in Wills No. 10., 268. made Apr. 15, 1822, probated June 17, 1822. In this will he mentions his wife Rebecca, and sons William and Risdon Howard,—Risdon is there shown to be a minor.

Bond for the estate of Luke Howard, Jr., was given Aug. 9, 1822 by Jesse Knock, James Britton and Samuel G. Osborn for $20000. No distribution of a personal estate is given.

It seems reasonable to connect the Howards of Francis Usilton's will with the Howard family that is now in Kent County. Mrs. Richard Wood Sampson of Clifton Forge, Virginia, has contributed a Bible record of the Howard family to the D. A. R. collection of records, and in that it is shown that one "Risdin B Howard died Feb. 27, 1831 in his 22 year". This Bible record also shows the death of Luke Howard, Jr. as April 19th 1822. This corresponds with the dates of the administration account of Luke Howard, Jr., but no mention is made of the mother's name. It seems likely that "Rebecca" of the will was not the mother of William and Risdin. It is not shown in the Bible who Rebecca was before her marriage. A more extended search may show the exact connections.

HOSANNA REED, IV.

William, (1); William, (2); Francis, (3); Hosanna, (4).

Hosanna, daughter of Francis and Catharine Usilton, married first Robert Ashley. In the records of Kent County Marriage Licenses it is recorded that "Hosea" Usilton was married to Robert Ashley February 16, 1801. Other records will show that it was Hosanna that was married at that time.

Robert Ashley made a will Jan. 30, 1803, in which he named his wife Hosanna Ashley, and son John Ashley. To his son he left "all my right & Title of my Fathers undivided Estate," the same to "remain in the hands of my Brother John Ashley" until the son should be of age.

The will is found in Wills No. 8., 194., made as stated above and probated July 16, 1803.

It was witnessed by John Foreman, Marmaduke Medford, and John Beck.

The second marriage of Hosanna Ashley is not recorded here, but she next appears as Hosanna, widow of Samuel Reed.

In Guardian Accounts & Bonds, 1818-182-, page 20, it is shown that Hosanna Reed was administratrix and guardian for her children, heirs of Samuel Reed, March 25, 1820. The children named were Mary, Joseph, Samuel, and George Reed.

Mary Reed, daughter of Samuel and Hosanna Reed, married William Edwards. The fact, not the date, is shown in Accounts No. 15., 271. April 3, 1832.

After the settlement of the estate of Samuel Reed there was a balance to be distributed amounting to $1304.67½, dated June 18, 1819.

Hosanna Reed, "Widow of Samuel Reed", left a will, made Feb. 16, 1826, probated Mar. 9, 1826, recorded in No. 10., 435. In this she named her sons, John Ashley and Joseph and George Reed, and daughter Mary Reed.

She directed the disposal of "land bought of Joseph Kennard and land bought of Rosamond Steen."

The witnesses were Samuel G. Kennard, Moses Kennard, and Andrew Toulson.

This accords with a land record in J. N. G. 5., 52, June 17, 1837, when Joseph Reed sold his undivided one third part of land called Worton Manor, six acres, being the same land conveyed to Samuel Reed by Francis Usilton Aug. 16, 1817, also one undivided part of Worton Manor which was conveyed by Daniel Lamb to Rosamond Steen July 31, 1813, which was afterward conveyed to Hosanna Reed by said Rosamond Steen, "and which Joseph Reed was a son and heir at law of Samuel Reed and son and one of the devisees of Hosanna Reed."

Bond for the estate of Hosanna Reed was given March 14, 1826, by John Usilton, Administrator, Robert Usilton, and Joseph Usilton for $10000. (Bonds No. 10., 507)

No distribution is recorded. Amount due the estate $1,552.14½. John Usilton, Administrator.

FRANCIS USILTON, IV.

William, (1); William, (2); Francis, (3); Francis, (4).

Francis Usilton, third son of Francis and Catharine Usilton, married Hannah Rebecca Lamb, Oct. 13, 1827.

Will of Francis Usilton.

In this will he mentions a daughter Frances Philena, wife of George R. Reed; daughter Susan A. Usilton; daughter

Mary E. Usilton; daughter Ann R. Usilton; son John Francis Usilton, "to hold the farm and pay legacies" to above named and in case he die without issue same to go to his brother Joseph L. Usilton. Executor, James H. Gale. Witnesses Thomas Toulson, James Beck, Sr., James Beck (of George)

Will made Feb. 25, 1850. Mar. 12, 1850. (Reference: J. F. B. 1., 296)

Mar. 12, 1850, bond for $5000 was given for this estate by James H. Gale, James Gale, and Daniel Jones.
(Bonds No. 12., 338)

In Accounts No. 20, 279., Feb. 17, 1852, James H. Gale shows an amount of $3,234.24 to be distributed. Lewin Usilton was Guardian to John F. and Joseph L. Usilton.

Vouchers J. F. B. 236. shows Lewin Usilton Guardian to John F. Usilton and Joseph L. Usilton, sons of the late Francis Usilton. Jan. 18, 1853.

On page 318 a receipt was given by John F. Usilton to Lewin Usilton, "late guardian for $2,107.43, bal due."

John F. Usilton married Rachel Parsons Nov. 23, 1861.

In addition to the land willed by Francis Usilton to his son Robert, it is found that John Usilton sold to Robert Usilton a tract of land of eight acres which was conveyed to the said John Usilton by Francis and his wife Catharine, said tract being in Still Pond. Dated June 5, 1832. (J. N. G. 2., 653)

Robert Usilton died intestate. The Proceedings Of The Orphans Court 1846-1856, page 221, shows:

"The Court received renunciations from the widow Mary Ann Usilton and the children Robert T. Usilton and Samuel L. Usilton of Robert Usilton late of Kent County Decd with their recommendations in favor of James B. Ricaud Esq being appointed to administer said Estate.
Wednesday, December 17th 1851."

The record book of bonds of this period cannot be found. The inventory of the personal property was made by John T. Skirven and James Beck, of Geo., January 21, 1852. The amount of the personal estate was $546.03¾. If a lover of antique furniture could see the inventory the amount would be estimated to be much more. Consider "3 mahogany Tables, 1 pr. Brafs andirons, 14½ ounces of Silver, 1 Mantel Clock, lot of Books, cupboard & contents, 1 Trunnel Bedstead," together with stock and farming implements, but no slaves.
(Invts. No. 27., 167)

No distribution of the personal estate is recorded.
